

I drive truck all over the country for a living.
I listen to my XM radio exclusively, because of the clear channel sound, and not needing to listen to 15 minutes of commercials, to hear 5 minutes of music, or information.

I think it would be a gross injustice to limit XM in the programming it can offer. Just to protect the "fat cats". that can only compete, when they are a monopoly!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Fred Slaymaker